The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL www.cursus-fotografie.nl/google-fotos.php. The page has a dark blue header with navigation tabs: 'Basiscursus', 'Gevorderden', 'Natuurfotografie', 'Uitleg', 'Begrippen', 'Producten', 'Verdieping', and 'Fotobewerking'. The main content area is white and features an article titled 'Google foto's vervangt Google+ foto's & Picasaweb' by Rinus Alewijnse, Middelburg. The article text discusses the transition from Google+ and Picasaweb to Google Photos in May 2015. A prominent green 'START DOWNLOAD' button is visible, with a list of '3 Easy Steps' for downloading: 1) Click 'Start Download', 2) Download on our website!, and 3) Get Free File Converter. Below the text is a small image gallery showing various photos. A sidebar on the left contains a menu with categories like 'Algemeen', 'Picasa handleiding', and 'Picasa van Google'.

Google back-up en synchronisatie

The screenshot shows the 'Back-up en synchronisatie' (Backup and synchronization) page on the Google Photos website. The page has a blue background and features a central illustration of a computer monitor, keyboard, mouse, and a smartphone. On the left, there are two main sections: 'Back-up en synchronisatie' with a 'DOWNLAADEN' button, and 'Voor mobiele apparaten' with 'Google Play' and 'App Store' download buttons. The text describes how Google Photos automatically backs up photos from a Mac or PC and provides instructions for mobile devices.
